HOSTING

As our programme is a reciprocal exchange programme, all students who apply to be an Outbound student must host for a minimum two periods of four months per period. Please ensure you have discussed this with your parents. Home hosting is an exceptional way to partake in our exchange programme. There is no financial reward for hosting, just as our students do not pay any board whilst overseas.

Can your family commit to hosting an exchange student for a minimum two periods of four months per period? Yes No

Can you give another name of another local family who could host a Rotary Youth Exchange student for a period of four months Yes No
